RULES & TIPS

1 - No Cheating (No phone calls, texts, searching Bing, Hitchhikers' Guide, the Oracle of Delphi, The Google, Encyclopedia Britannica stashed in the loo, or any other reference you don't have inside your skull.)

2 - Have fun!

3 - Points will be announced after every question and between each chukker. The winner is the team with the most points at the final siren.

4 - Each answer must be submitted on the official answer form. If it is a multiple part answer, you will be instructed how to write it down.

5 - Some questions will be designated as BONUS. It might be that only one team gets that bonus, or several teams may be allowed the opportunity. Consult your host in case of questions.

6 - Generous teams may be offered an advantage if they slyly slip some extra cash into the Phoenix Program donation jar. Advantages could take many forms, here are a few possible ways you will be rewarded for generosity:

- If the question asks for a numerical answer "+/- 1 year", there may be a call for a specific $ donation that will only require accuracy +/- 3 years
- If you are asked to submit "4 of the 8 correct answers", basic teams will only submit 4 answers and hope they get them, all.
- Our Premium Teams, who become Premium with a donation, may be allowed to submit 6 or 8 answers and only 4 of them would have to be correct for full points.
- If we ask for a ranking like "Name the 4 smallest states by area, in order" the Premium teams can pay extra for the opportunity to submit more than one order Listen up for other SPECIAL OFFERS limited to those Premium teams

7 - You may consult with your team on every question, only ONE answer will be accepted from each team

8 - Fair Play is our goal. No shouting out wrong answers, intentionally sabotaging other teams, or just generally trying to be a city slicker who gets an edge. If you deceive another team, you will at least get the frowning of a lifetime

9 - The host is incredibly skilled at this trivia stuff and unquestionably impartial. If he makes a decision, right or wrong, it stands. No appeals (Unless he changes his mind)
